RefWorks Registration Instructions

To create a RefWorks account, select RefWorks from the Databases menu on the library homepage. On the RefWorks homepage, click “Create account”.

Enter your South College email address and click the “Check” button.
RefWorks Registration Instructions

To use your South College username and password with RefWorks, choose the "Use login from my institution" option at the bottom of the screen.

Scroll through the pop-up box and select “South College”.
RefWorks Registration Instructions

On the South College login screen, sign in with your Canvas username and password. Students, please choose “Student” in the first menu before signing in.

![Login Screen]

Fill out your name and choose your status as a South College user from the dropdown menu.

![Welcome to RefWorks]

The tutorial that follows will give a brief overview of RefWorks. You also receive an email with more information on RefWorks’ capabilities.